Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, the Martin testimony which had been cleared by [redacted] Sourwine said that we could have up to 100 copies of the printed hearings but that if we wanted a larger number we would have to ride the jacket.

11. (Secret - GLC) At his request met with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee. He said Senator Stennis has become very interested and concerned about the drug situation in Southeast Asia and its impact on U.S. military personnel there. He said the Senator wants him to get fully briefed on the drug problem and is particularly interested in information which we have on the involvement of the Saigon government in drug traffic and what, if anything, the government there is doing to cope with the problem. Arrangements have been tentatively made for [redacted] I to meet with Mr. Braswell on Tuesday, 1 June, at 2 p.m. to discuss further.

Braswell talked at some length about the problems he anticipates the Chairman will run into when the military procurement authorization bill is taken up on the Senate floor. I told him we were preparing some material for Blandford and Slatinshek on this and would have a paper for him in the next day or two.

12. (Confidential - GLC) William Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, called and said arrangements were now firm for our budget session on 11 June. He said he expects the session to run from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 2:30 p.m. until the subject is covered in the afternoon. He is still not sure whether the Chairman will want a transcript, but said we should proceed on the assumption that he will.
